Thanksgiving Report and Service at Cedar Hill

Oct. 28 - "A Tree Known by Its Fruit" -
 Luke 18:9-14

1. The Pharisee thought he was righteous because he went beyond the law's requirements - he was boasting to God but not asking God for anything.
2. The Tax Collector boasted of nothing but asked God for forgiveness and mercy.
3. Righteousness involves not only following the law but also seeking God in humility.
4. Forgiveness, mercy, love, and being peacemakers are characteristics of the righteous.
5. The Pharisee saw himself:
 - 5a. as self-made, not God made and redeemed, God owed him;
 - 5b. full of contempt for his neighbor, not love.
6. The Pharisee broke both of the greatest commandments.
7. Mt. 12:33 - A tree is known by its fruit.
8. Trusting in your own righteousness leads to contempt of others
9. Trusting in God's grace makes it impossible to treat others with contempt.
10. What are you trusting in?

Oct. 28 evening - The Story of the Church, part 1 - Acts 9:1-20

1. Pentecost sermon is a reversal of the scattering of the Tower of Babel.
2. Now the unifying language is love is the language of love.
3. God will build a church that is a mightier thing than the Tower of Babel.
- 4a. Without discipline you won't learn a language
- 4b. If you don't use the language you've learned you'll lose it.
5. The Pentecostal language of the Church is faith and love and includes discipline and work.
6. God gives us the language but we have to use and keep in practice.

7. How great the world would be if we all spoke the same Pentecostal language!

Announcements

The 80th birthday reception for Jackie Collins will be on Sat., Nov. 17, from 2:00-4:00 at Bales Chapel UMC.

You'll kindly take note that Communion has been moved to the last Sunday of the month.

The next two Sunday Evening services after our revival will follow the story of the early church.

The church website has pictures of the Lord's Acre and pictures and video from Trunk or Treat! You'll also find an updated special events page and main sermon points from the last several months. www.hardinschapel.org

Aren't you getting tired of seeing this announcement? You know how to make it go away, don't you? We have assistants, but we still need a leader for the Team Kids and Mission Kids in 2008. There's plenty of time to observe the current leaders in action and learn the job before January.

Please keep turning in Pounds and Talents monies.

It'll be Revival Time in just a couple of weeks. Keep your calendars open for Sun., Nov. 11 through Wed., Nov. 14 for that!

Lydia wasn't fast enough, so on Nov. 18 after Sunday School, you're invited to stay for the MYF's Spaghetti lunch to raise money for Resurrection.

Oh, goody! It's time to start signing up for cooking and working volunteers for this year's Thanksgiving meal. Notice that there's no mashed potatoes this year! But we will need a few strong fellows to be at Trinity early Thursday morning to help with lifting, baking and loading the turkey because our cook has had surgery and still can't lift the pans.

Another oh, goody! The annual Rotation Sunday School begins today and goes through the first half of December. All the youth classes will begin studying and learning and working on the story, scripture, songs and crafts needed for this year's Christmas program, set for Sun., Dec. 16, at 2:00.
