*Please stand as you are able

Tonight: Temple Maintenance, 5:00; youth groups, 6:00; choir, 7:00.

UMW meets tomorrow night at 7:00.

See your bulletin inserts for how you can help with the recent floods as well as instructions for the school kits for Zimbabwe.

One point of clarification: Next Sun. evening, May 23, our evening concert is a cookout under the pavilion or in the community center at 5:00, followed by a puppet show by the Father's Hand Ministry of Hampton. Sorta kids oriented, but everyone is welcome and will have a good time. The attendees of the Father's Place Church have also been invited since we never got to have them over for their usual Christmas meal and program, but the event is for all the church. See Randy for more details on the meal.

Today you're invited to an 80th birthday party celebration for Jay from 2:00-4:00 at the Community Center. NO GIFTS, please.

Please let Dan Duggar know of any Pounds and Talents projects you're planning for the newsletter meeting that you're invited to this Tuesday.

Thursday night Bible study resumes this week, so continue reading thru the Bible. An overview of 2 Kings will be the study's topic. Cogburns are providing pork loin for the supper at 6:30. Study follows from 7:00 to 8:00

The Bible Class is going to leave the church at 4:30 this Sat., to go out to eat at Mama's House Buffet and then on to the show at Carter's Fold. If you'd like to go, check with Doug about room on the van list.

"Lawn Care for the Hyltons." For details, contact Michelle.
